

FEBRUARY IS NATIONAL CANCER PREVENTION MONTH!

NEARLY HALF OF ALL CANCERS CAN BE PREVENTED

WEEK 2 TIP

Tip:

Get vaccinated!

HPV vaccination can prevent the majority of HPV cancers and precancers from ever developing. Preteens should get HPV vaccine at ages 11-12 to get protected before they are exposed to the virus; however the vaccination is available through age 26.

Share these tips and more with your students.
www.cancerpathways.org | jana@cancerpathways.org

February is National Cancer Prevention Month!

Week 2 Tip:

Get vaccinated! HPV vaccination can prevent the majority of HPV cancers and precancers from ever developing. Preteens should get the HPV vaccine at ages 11-12 to get protected before they are exposed to the virus; however vaccination is available through age 26.

Click here to learn more about Cancer Happens, our free cancer education program for teens.